CARDINAL DELLA CHIESA

Elected as the Successor of Pius X

Had Only Been a Member of the College
Since Last May and Will Take the Name of Benedicte XV.

Rome, September 3.—Cardinal Della Chiesa has been elected Pope in succession to the late Pius X. The new Pope will assume the name of Benedicte XV. The new Pontiff's full name is Giacomo Della Chiesa, and he is the archbishop of Bologna.

Who the New Pope Is.
Cardinal Giacomo Della Chiesa, who was today elected Pope by the Sacred college in succession to Pius X, who died August 20, was created a cardinal May 25, 1911. He is the archbishop of Bologna, Italy. He was born at Pegli in the diocese of Genoa, November 21, 1851 and was ordained a priest December 21, 1878. He served as secretary of the Nunciature in Spain from 1883 to 1887, in which year he was appointed secretary to the late Cardinal Rampulla. He was appointed substitute secretary of State in 1901, and in 1907 he was elected to the post of advisor to the Holy Office. In 1907 he was appointed Papal Nuncio of Madrid in succession to Mgr. Rinaldi, but this appointment was cancelled three days later. This incident had occurred just before he was made archbishop of Bologna. When Mgr. Della Chiesa was given this post it was declared in Rome that it was mainly with the object of neutralizing modern religious ideas, Bologna being the headquarters of the National Democratic League, whose members advocated what is known as "modernism" in religion. In January 1911, while still at Bologna, the present Pope issued a pastoral letter, strongly condemning the league. It is an interesting fact that the new Pope was archbishop of Bologna while Pope Benedicte XIV, was born in Bologna.

On the accession of Pope Pius X, Della Chiesa continued in the secretariat until December 16, 1907, when Pius X gave him a noted promotion to the position of archbishop of the important see of Bologna. For seven years he administered the see of Bologna with notable success, until in May last, Pope Pius X, named him among 13 members of the hierarchy to receive the red hat. Archbishop Begni of Quebec was among the other cardinals named at that time, the others being prelates of Spain, France, Austria, Germany and Italy. The full title of the new Pope, in addition to Benedicte XV, will be Pope Bishop of Rome and Successor of St. Peter, Supreme Pontiff of the Universal Church, Patriarch of the West, Primate of Italy, Archbishop and Metropolitan of the Roman Province, Sovereign of the Temporal Dominion of the Holy Roman Church.

Cardinal Della Chiesa has had wide experience, both as administrator of the important see of Bologna and also on the diplomatic side of a secretary of the nuncio at Madrid. As secretary to the Secretary of State, Cardinal Della Chiesa was brought into notable prominence throughout the Catholic hierarchy, but his position was not at that time of cardinal rank. He is described as a man of great spiritual character and one of the most highly esteemed in the hierarchy.

He is about average height, of stocky build and rather quiet and reserved manners.

WOMAN'S CLUB HEADQUARTERS.

The members of the Woman's Club have secured the use of the Parish Room of the Church of the Nativity for their meetings, lectures, etc., and will take possession immediately.

This is a very desirable meeting place for the Club as it is centrally located.

The room was formerly used by Miss Jordan's Training School, but has recently been refurnished by the Woman's Club of the church and now presents a most pleasing appearance.

WILL YOU HELP?

Colored School Mission Wants Your Assistance—Please Read Carefully.

The Colored School Mission is in need of money. Unless this is given at once the work of the Mission will immediately cease. The Mission has been supported almost entirely for the last two years by the money and sympathy of the good white people of this city. But its noble work will cease to operate longer unless a certain amount is assured it at once by those who feel that such work is needed.

As has often been explained in these columns before the work of the Mission is necessary, definite and result getting. It teaches at least 50 girls for ten months ranging in ages from 8 to 18 years old, how to do all plain cooking as well as kitchen and dining room work. It furnishes free clothing to all pauper and indigent children and gives them food at actual cost. This saves many a child from becoming a criminal and puts in him a desire to be useful. The Mission has always been handicapped in carrying out these necessary plans because of the lack of funds.

If we could only get enough white friends to give to this worthy undertaking a decided change would be noticeable within the next ten months in the conduct and usefulness of the colored children of this city. There is no such organization in this city to help the submerged colored boy or girl. The white City Mission gives us nearly all the clothing we need but we need actual cash also.

For the last two years we have given away 1200 pieces of clothing, served over 800 dollars worth of penny lunches, given away over 1000 free lunches to hungry children and have taught 125 girls plain cooking, kitchen and dining room work.

Anyone who feels that he or she would like to give to this worthy cause please do so at once by sending cash or check to Prof. W. H. Humphrey, Box 265. The Mission makes monthly reports and every donor will be given credit if he so desires. The Mission has the sympathy and support of the School Board, White City Mission and the best white people.

Board meeting at Christian Church tonight.

For the conservative dresser we have an elegant line of suits and at an exceedingly low price.

A little early to say anything about our Overcoats, Raincoats and Macinaws. When the time for them arrives we'll show you a line that will satisfy and please you.

See our new Stetson and Knox Fall Hats—they will interest you.

Our Shoe Department is running over with the best that leading Shoe Manufacturers produce—every pair guaranteed to give satisfaction.

SUITS ARE VERY DIFFERENT

How changed they are! Instead of the frivolous little coat of last season with its butterfly sleeves and abbreviated length, we have the severe long redingote. The bright hues of tango, Copenhagen, reseda, etc., are replaced by dark Russian green, seal brown, dark prune and midnight blue, with black as usual holding its own with well dressed women.

Suit Skirts hang in graceful pleats from fitted yokes. But the pleats are shallow and pressed very flat so the slender silhouette is preserved and the width of the skirt is not accentuated. But it is there—and at last one's feet are untrammelled and the American Swinging Step replaces the mincing Japanese gait. Thanks be.

New York is sending us something daily and if you are not ready to buy, it is our pleasure to have you "look," not once but as often as you desire. Come in, you are always welcome.

THE PASSING OF SENATOR BRISTOW.

Joseph L. Bristow, of Kansas, will not be re-elected to the United States Senate.

This is not new news, but as Mark Twain said when he referred to the death of the man who invented the cuckoo clock, there's nothing else the matter with it.

Neither will Cole Blaise of South Carolina be elected to the United States Senate—this year.

The fact that these gentlemen are mentioned in the same connection is not necessarily conclusive evidence that they are both alike. It would be impossible, perhaps, to find two of either of them in this life who would entirely resemble each other.

In the United States Senate Bristow was never anything except a misfit and Blaise would have been even worse.

All agitator, within reasonable limits, is a pretty good thing. A fellow who objects to most everything often develops evils and faults which need to be eliminated, but a man who never sees good in anything which he himself doesn't originate, and who believes that all honesty and integrity, and political wisdom repose in his own being, is a mighty good sort of a man to keep out of the legislative halls.—Lexington Leader.

ONE OF THE "BLESSINGS".

It is announced that the revenues of the Government will fall short some $100,000,000, and that the deficit will be made up by a stamp tax on beer, whisky, leather and coffee. We do not all drink beer, whisky or even coffee, but we all do use leather for foot covering, and so the extra tax will fall on the poor as well as the rich. This is one of the blessings (?) of Democratic Free-Trade.—Bowieville (Cal.) Mountain Messenger.

England is fighting primarily not simply to help France, or to suppress Germany's military ambition, but principally to maintain her commercial supremacy—to protect what is to her the breath of her nostrils, the source of her life and power. Germany is bottled up and may soon be banished from the seas, as we have been so long. And unless we move quickly Great Britain will keep us bottled up indefinitely. And nobody can blame her for trying to do it. But, oh, how we should kick ourselves if we allow her to succeed!—Baltimore Evening Sun.

The mobility of the German army has been amply demonstrated in action, up to date. This mobility must now be made to count heavily, before the allies have time to reorganize, if Germany is to win the war. If the Kaiser is another Frederick the Great he has had his Rossbach, and should he as swift as Frederick to get to Lenthien. What Frederick in the eighteenth century could do in a month, the Kaiser, in the twentieth century, should do in a week.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

If the antagonism of European powers had to come to a head and if a modern battle had to be so indefinitely more terrible than anything before it in history, we may breathe the prayer it be the world's last great bloody battle. It may be the quickest, if the most costly, road to universal peace.—New Haven Journal-Courier.

"You pays your money and you takes your choice."

THE PRICE WE PAY.

The account of the American Public for the Fourth of July has been balanced for another year, and the price, as usual, is heavy. Three little boys died from lockjaw as a result of Fourth of July injuries; sixteen persons, mostly little girls and small children, were burned to death by fire from fireworks; five persons were killed by firearms, six by explosions of gun powder, guns or torpedoes, four by cannon and five died from blood poison resulting from injuries caused by fireworks. The total number of deaths resulting from Fourth of July injuries, according to the twelfth annual report on this subject compiled by The Journal of the American Medical Association, is forty and the number injured is 1,406, making total of 1,506 accidents resulting from the Fourth of July celebrations. Among those injured but not killed, thirty-six were totally blinded, thirteen lost one eye each, sixteen lost legs, arms or hands, and sixty-seven lost one or more fingers. This record, which reads like a report of a European battlefield, is unfortunately not as good as that of last year or the year before. In 1913 only thirty-two persons were killed and 1,131 injured, and in 1912, while forty-one persons were killed, only 947 were injured—the smallest number reported in the past twelve years. Pennsylvania still leads all the other states, having had 487 Fourth of July injuries to her credit this year, or over 25 per cent. of those in the entire country of which 241, or about one-half, occurred in Philadelphia. New York had 250 accidents, almost double the number reported last year. Illinois reported ninety-five injured or more than twice as many as last year, while Massachusetts and Connecticut had respectively eighty-seven and seventy-seven cases—the largest number since 1910. In Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio and Washington, the number has decreased to a marked extent. During the twelve years in which these statistics have been collected, 42,786 persons—nearly forty-three regiments—have been injured through Fourth of July accidents.

WOMEN IN MEDICINE.

During the past year there were 131 women studying medicine, or 9 less than last year, a decrease of 48 below 1912 and a decrease of 498 (44.1 per cent.) below 1904, when 1,129 women students, the largest number, were reported. The percentage of all medical students was 3.8, the same as last year. There were 121 women graduates this year, or 3.4 per cent. of all graduates. Of all the women matriculants, 135 (21.4 per cent.) were in attendance at the two medical colleges for women, while the remaining 496 (78.6 per cent.) were matriculated in the 54 coeducational colleges. From the two women's colleges there were 25, or 20.7 percent, of all women graduates, while 96, or 79.3 per cent., secured their degrees from coeducational colleges. These figures taken from the annual report on Medical Education, issued by The Journal of the American Medical Association show that women are not going into the study of medicine to the extent that they once did.

It is reported throughout the country that help on the farm is more easily secured than it has been for several years. Nothing strange about that. You know Democratic policies have been at work for more than a year. Plenty of idle laborers under such conditions.—Central Missouri Republican.

FATAL DEFECT.

The Rev. Bascom Anthony, a presiding elder of the Methodist Church in Southern Georgia, tells a story of a negro pastor down his way who failed to give satisfaction to his flock. A committee from the congregation waited on him to request his resignation.

"Look here!" demanded the preacher. "What's the trouble with mah preaching? Don't I argue?"
"You sho does, eldah," agreed the spokesman.
"Don't I 'spitify' consern' de Scriptures?"
"You suttinly does," admitted the other.
"Den what's wrong?"
"Well, eldah," stated the head of the committee, "hit's dis way: You argues and you 'spitifies', but don't show wherein!"—Saturday Evening Post.

TO BEGIN CANNING TOMATOES.

(Dover News.) The Dover Packing Company will make a run on tomatoes one day this week, probably Friday.

The summer drought held back the tomato crop, but the late rains have brought out the vines and though late there will be a very nice run of tomatoes for the factory.

It is expected that there will be enough tomatoes to put up about 2,500 cases, or 60,000 cans. This is much less than the company expected to can but much more than the early part of the season indicated.

HOW A NEW POPE IS CHOSEN

ST. PETER'S AND THREE PROMINENT PAPAL POSSIBILITIES.

On the eleventh day after the death of a pope, the tenth day in ordinary calculations, but the eleventh if the day of the pope's death is counted, the cardinals meet in conclave to elect his successor. The laws governing the conclave are many and minute. The general course of the conclave is set forth here.

The pope dies. As soon as he is dead the officials of the papal court leave the palace; nowadays they will simply leave the chamber of the dead pope, for it must not be forgotten that the pope is still, together with his officials, a prisoner, so outside of the Vatican the officials cannot go except in disguise. The cardinal camerlengo, or chamberlain, announces to the people of the court that his holiness is dead and then breaks with a hammer the ring of the fisherman and the seal of the dead pope. The dean of the sacred college, the senior cardinal priest and the senior cardinal deacon then take charge of the administration of the affairs of the church and send notice to all the cardinals not in the city. These cardinals are not summoned; they come at once without being called. For ten days funeral services are held daily in St. Peter's church, and then the body is placed in a temporary resting place.

Letting For the Cardinals.

The period of ten days is fixed by law, but it is not obligatory on the cardinals to obey the law. In fact, there are several things fixed by the Roman ceremonial governing the conclave that may be disregarded. So the conclave may begin within ten days or it may not begin for a good deal more than ten days. It all depends. But on the appointed day the cardinals gather in St. Peter's and the cardinal dean celebrates the mass of the Holy Ghost. After this the cardinals, in procession, sing "Veni, Creator Spiritus," march to the place of the conclave in the palace. There the dean recites the prayer, "Deus qui corda," and the constitutions governing the conclave are read and the cardinals take oath to obey them. During the rest of the day the cardinals receive their friends, but when evening comes the friends depart and the cardinals are shut up; the conclave begins.

First Chosen by People.

The pope, whose importance as actual bishop of Rome was much more apparent formerly than now, when civil government, as there has been in change in these texts.

Hallcock's History of English Literature plus 75c for same. Revised Edition. Wentworth's Plane and Solid Geometry plus 75c for Wentworth-Smith's Plane and Solid.

Look over your books and if you have any of these texts that are in usable condition and further if any member of your family needs the new texts, take the old books to either Depository, J. T. Knealey or DeNuzie. It will greatly facilitate their work if you dinal camerlengo, the other by the governor of the conclave, a prelate chosen by the cardinals. A turning box is built into the door, through which food is passed; the keys are kept by an outside guard and by the chief master of ceremonies on the inside. The room is guarded closely.

There are many more persons in the conclave than the cardinals. Each cardinal is entitled to two servants and a third if he is very feeble. Then there are two secretaries, two masters of ceremonies, one religious to hear confessions, one secretary, who has one servant, three surgeons, four lawyers, one carpenter, one ushers and several general servants.

The conclave having begun in the evening of the eleventh day, the cardinals go to their "cells." These are wooden booths arranged in the largest hall of the conclave; there is one booth for each cardinal.

Excommunication No Bar.

In the morning the cardinal dean says a low mass of the Holy Ghost, at which all the cardinals receive the communion. This is said in the Sistine or the Pauline chapel. Then a scrutiny, or vote, is taken. Only the cardinals are allowed in the chapel at this time, but no cardinal can be kept out. A cardinal arriving late may be admitted, but only a sick person may leave the conclave after he is once in. Even an excommunicated cardinal may vote if there should be such a one.

Three cardinals, one from each order are chosen to act as tellers. In turn the cardinals approach the vase on the altar and, kneeling, pray for guidance.

Then they take this oath: "I call upon God, who will be my judge, to witness that I choose the person whom before God I judge to be elected and that I will do the same on the necessary." And, having sworn, they drop their ballots into the vase. The ballots are prepared thus: At one end the cardinal writes his name. He then folds the ballot so that his name shall not appear as the ballot is examined first and sends the fold. The name of his candidate he writes in these words: "I choose for supreme pontiff the Most Rev. ——" and seals this part of the ballot. When all the cardinals present have voted the tellers begin the count.

New Pope Saluted.

When a pope is chosen by a two-thirds vote the cardinal dean asks him what name he will take, and the secret

Though kingdoms war and crowned head fies, They haven't anything on us; We have to stand for T. R.'s rage Since he got lumped off the first page. —Luke.

—Mrs. LAWRENCE MARTIN, 12 King St., Westbrook, Maine.

Manston, Wis. — "At the Change of Life I suffered with pains in my back and loins until I could not stand. I also had night-sweats so that the sheets would be wet. I tried other medicine but got no relief. After taking one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to improve and I continued its use for six months. WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES

Kidney Diseases Cause Many Aches and Pains of Maysville People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so may weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking-down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and generally when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills frequently come, and there is an ever-increasing tendency towards dropsy, gravel or fatal Bright's disease. When the kidneys fail there is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys. Maysville testimony is proof of their effectiveness. Mrs. Anna McClellan, 541 W. Second St., Maysville, Ky., says: "I was often dizzy and nervous and my head ached. I had pain in my back and my kidneys were weak. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped the complaint immediately and made me well and strong."

Mrs. McClellan is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. McClellan had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. "TRUSTEE'S DAY"

Featured Yesterday's Proceedings in the Mason County Teachers' Institute

Mrs. Stewart Will Deliver Her Address on Illiteracy This Afternoon

Wednesday was known in the Teachers' Institute as "Trustee's Day."

The morning session was opened as usual with music instruction followed by the solo, "On the Road to Mandalay," by Mr. C. H. Croston.

Mr. E. L. Dix, the new principal of the Mayslick Consolidated School, gave a brief but humorous and instructive talk on the value of chalk use by the teacher. This will make an appeal to the child throughout the eye as well as the ear and thereby create an interest where otherwise the teacher would probably meet with no response. He illustrated the value of cheerfulness in his drawings.

Mrs. Cora W. Stewart gave as her talk in the morning "The Matter of Adjustment." In this subject she placed foremost the ability of a child to make a living—in other words to adjust himself to every phase or condition of life. Mrs. Stewart emphasized the value of a good foundation for the education, structure saying that the high school, college, or university graduate will not be a success if the most important part of the foundation, or the Elementary School Education is not thorough. This can not be thorough unless more attention is given to the teaching of Reading, Writing, Spelling, Grammar and Arithmetic.

Mrs. Stewart would advocate the reorganization of the curriculum to fit the needs of the country boy or girl. It is the teachers' mission and great privilege to help the child find his vocation in life, which he can do by ascertaining his likes and dislikes. The most certain way of keeping the country boy or girl in the country is to breathe the atmosphere of Rural life into every subject in the course.

Principal E. L. Dix was called upon to discuss what he and his schools had accomplished in regard to Good Roads. He told of the model road which was built by the school and patrons of Burlington, Boone County. Mrs. Stewart told of how a sentiment for better roads was created in Rowan County by building one hundred yards of model road in front of each school in her county. A text-book on building of roads has been adopted and used in all of Rowan County's schools. Miss Jessie G. Yancy advocated the use of this same book—Raymond's Road Primer, in our schools. She told of how Miss Allene King, one of the county's foremost teachers raised seventeen hundred and fifty dollars (1750) to build a mile of good road leading to her school.

Since Wednesday was Trustee's Day, the most important talk of the morning was addressed to the trustees by Mrs. Stewart. Some of the topics which were touched upon were: The Qualification of a Trustee. The honor and importance of his office which should be conferred upon him as the highest badge of citizenship and a platform, or the principles for which he stands when he aspires to office. As the highest power of the parents is delegated to the trustee when they permit him to select a teacher for their children should not the trustee be the most efficient man in the community? Finally, "a good trustee plus a good, faithful teacher spells Success." Mrs. Stewart then pointed to the wonderful work of Consolidation which has been done in Shelby County, Tennessee, as an example of what can be done by the cooperation of superintendent, teachers, parents and trustees. This talk was closed with a plea to the trustees to attend the K. E. A. next year in a body, where they may come into touch with other trustees and teachers and find the keynote for the best development of our future citizens in Co-operation.

The afternoon exercises were devoted to the Common School graduation. The first stanza of "America" was sung by the class of forty-two members and the audience. Mr. Caplinger led in prayer.

A delightful feature of the program was several solos which Mr. Craxton sang, especially for the benefit of the graduating class.

Miss Yancey intends that the following program shall be printed and placed in all of the county schools:

Definite things to be accomplished in Health—Good ventilation stove jacketed, thermometer in room, eyesight of all tested by the method of the Society for Prevention of Blindness, dental inspection, campaign against the fly, water supply of every school tested by the State Board of Health with no cost to the district, enforcement of cigarette law, and at least one lecture during the term on Preventable Diseases by a physician or nurse, given in every district.

Mr. Dix gave another of his "Chalk" talks, illustrating each of the subjects

"Not Self, But Service."

Mrs. Stewart delivered one of the most impressive commencement and dresses ever given in the High School building. She gave us the welcome intelligence that Mason county ranks high educationally, since it has two and one-half per cent. less of illiteracy between the ages of ten and twenty than any other county in the State. She gave the class as their watchword: "Not Self, But Service."

Mr. E. L. Dix delivered the diploma and made the presentation speech, urging the graduates forward and calling on all to join the campaign in banishing the three great evils of Illiteracy, Dishonesty and Inefficiency.

Mrs. Cora W. Stewart will give her lecture on Illiteracy in the High School Auditorium, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The public is cordially invited and urged to be present.

OUR COLORED CITIZENS

The financial rally at Scott M. E. Church next Sunday in which every loyal and intelligent member is asked to bring a dollar or as much as possible to show church pride and keep up reputation. The women will be led by Mrs. Fricella Taylor and Mrs. Whaley and the men by Mrs. Maggie Patton and Miss Lida Walker. There will be three services. At the 2:30 p. m. service Rev. Jackson of the Bethel Baptist church will preach and his choir is asked to sing in full charge or join us in singing. Let every body come. Bring your dinner and eat in the lecture room. $200.00 are to be raised. We wish all our friends to come or send a dollar.

You Need a Tonic

There are times in every woman's life when she needs a tonic to help her over the hard places. When that time comes to you, you know what tonic to take—Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, which act gently, yet surely, on the weakened womanly organs, and helps build them back to strength and health. It has benefited thousands and thousands of weak, ailing women in its past half century of wonderful success, and it will do the same for you.

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Miss Amelia Wilson, R. F. D. No. 4, Alma, Ark., says: "I think Cardui is the greatest medicine on earth, for women. Before I began to take Cardui, I was so weak and nervous, and had such awful dizzy spells and a poor appetite. Now I feel as well and as strong as I ever did, and can eat most anything." Begin taking Cardui today. Sold by all dealers.

RUGGLES CAMPGROUND.

The revival at Galilee closed Sunday evening with an immense gathering of enthusiastic people. The house was crowded to the utmost, and many people heard the sermon through the windows. There were fourteen additional and the church seems greatly enthused and is certainly standing on higher ground spiritually than before the meeting. Galilee is one of the strongest country churches in the country and the Sunday School is a banner one as the beautiful silken banner hanging on the wall announces no enrollment in one Sunday last year of 280, thereby winning in the contest then on between the county Sunday Schools. The Superintendent, Mr. Albert Warder has an able corps of assistants, and no one blames them for being proud of their work. The pastor of the church, Rev. T. W. Levy, a student at Lexington Bible College makes bi-monthly visits to the church. He is an exceptional young man and his work speaks for itself.

It's just as convenient in winter as in summer. While its cheerful glow welcomes your friends and guests, it is also the best burglar protection against tramps and other undesirable callers. It is a striking example of the superior convenience of electric light.

EDISON MAZDA LAMPS

With Edison Mazda Lamps you can enjoy all the other conveniences of electric light—the collar light, the attic light, the closet light, the all-night light—because EDISON MAZDA lamps take so little current that you can afford all these electric comforts at no greater cost than you paid for the more ordinary uses of old style electric lamps. Tell us what you want and we'll tell you the best size of lamp for the purpose. We supply all sizes of the famous EDISON MAZDA Lamps.
